

THE FAMILY OF WILLIAM MARSHALL
A Genealogy

Compiled by Bernice Kress Groenier

1947

P R E F A C E

This is a Genealogy of the descendants of William Marshall. Roman numerals are assigned to the names of his eleven children which are recorded on page one. Similarly, Arabic numerals are recorded for all the descendants of the eleven children. Each name retains the same number assignment wherever it appears in the Genealogy. An asterisk indicates that more information is to follow on the number indicated.

To seek information of a given person consult the index which will refer the reader by page number. If the given name appears on other pages, the fact will be shown by an asterisk and a page number.

It was my intention to color this Genealogy with a brief character insight of each person. This has not been realized completely. It is my fond hope that when this edition is revised, as it should be before many years, more of such information will be made available.

The tremendous bulk of factual material of births, marriages, deaths and other data has been gathered and passed on to me from family members in six states and Canada; I wish to express my sincere thanks to all who participated in this venture.

The pride of ancestry increases in the ratio of distance. - G. CURTIS.

(William<sup>1</sup>)

b. North Clifton, Nottinghamshire, England, Sept. 21, 1825; d. Jan. 22, 1918; m. (1) Eliza Baker, 1848; (b. Lincolnshire, England, Mar. 1829; d. April 1878;). John, Eliza, children Mary and William, brother Thomas and sister Anne sailed from Liverpool, England to New York City, New York. The voyage required 6 weeks. The trip to St. Charles, Ill. took them via the Hudson River to Albany, New York, the Erie Canal to Buffalo, New York and the Great Lakes to Chicago, Ill. Their home was in St. Charles for 9 months and then on to a farm 1 1/2 miles to the east for 5 years. They went to Charter Grove, Ill. in Feb. 1857 and removed to sycamore, Ill. in Dec. 1906.

It is reported that John's cash assets on arrival in the United States amounted to 30 cents and that a five dollar loan was negotiated in Chicago, Ill. He died a wealthy farmer.
